

Synergy

In the Arts

*A Western Maryland
Arts Education Symposium
Hosted by
Washington County Public Schools
In partnership with AEMS
(Arts Education in Maryland Schools Alliance)*

MAY

21st and 22nd

The biggest arts integration event to hit Western Maryland. Symposium Intended for: Arts teachers, classroom teachers, administrators, artists, community members, and stake holders interested in starting an arts school

Spend 2 days immersed in arts integration programs at the Barbara Ingram School for the Arts where multiple presenters will touch on the ideas of: Arts centered community building, creating an arts school, integrate the arts into core curricular areas k-12, and how to become an effective teaching and practicing artist.

Get the chance to tour our premier arts magnet schools and experience our downtown Arts and Entertainment District.

For all registration and Conference information:
http://www.wcps.k12.md.us/depts_programs/fine_arts/synergy.html

MSDE Credits Available
Please see our website for more information

*Witness the creativity at Washington County's first arts magnet high school:
Barbara Ingram School for the Arts*

Arts Education in Maryland Schools Alliance

FEATURING

Dr. Elizabeth Morgan
National Superintendant of the Year

Key Note Speaker
John Ceschini

Performances By
Barbara Ingram School for the Arts Students

Hands on Sessions in
Arts Integration k-12

Artist Information
Learning about surrounding area arts organizations and networks
Promoting yourself as an artist

A Night Out
with
Washington County Arts Council
Barbara Ingram School for the Arts Dancers
at the Maryland Theater

An Arts School
in an
Arts and Entertainment
District

Tours
Barbara Ingram School for the Arts
Fountaindale Elementary Magnet school for the Arts
Washington County Museum of Fine Arts

Creative Play
with
Clay, Dance, Music, Theater

Visiting Artists and Guests
Victoria Brown (Director of the Lucy School)
Gail Herman (Artist and Storyteller)
Slim Harrison (Musician)
Amy Hunt (Washington County Museum of Fine Arts)
Walters Art Museum
Linda Krakaur (George Mason University)
Pat Cruz (Young Audiences of Maryland)

Panel Discussions on Establishing and Arts and Entertainment district
Creating and maintaining arts based school communities
How to become and/or partner with a teaching artist

REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

Please register by MAY 1, 2010

Friday Only: $20.00 9:00 AM–8:00 PM

Registration fee includes:

Coffee and Danishes, school tours of the Barbara Ingram School for the Arts, Fountaindale Elementary School for the Arts and Academics, afternoon sessions on the start of an arts school in partnership with an Arts and Entertainment District, a

Saturday Only: $25.00 9:00 AM–3:30 PM

Registration fee includes:

Coffee and Danishes, keynote presentation from John Geschini, morning and afternoon session relating to arts integration for teachers, administrators, and artists, on-going arts performances and activities

Friday and Saturday: $35.00

Washington County Employees: $15.00

Please Detach and send with your registration fee

Name

School District

Email

Phone or other contact information

Friday, May 21, 2010 Only $20

Saturday, May 22, 2010 Only $25

Friday and Saturday, May 21-22, 2010 $35

Washington County Employee $15

Please send all information to:

Rob Hovermale
Synergy in the Arts
Washington County Public Schools
820 Commonwealth Avenue
Hagerstown, Maryland 21742

Please make all checks payable to:

The Barbara Ingram School for the Arts Foundation

Questions: Email Sandy Gray-Murray at:
graysan@wcboe.k12.md.us

Registration checks may not be used for tax deduction purposes.

For all registration and Conference information:
http://www.wcps.k12.md.us/depts_programs/fine_arts/synergy.html